Paul's Last Letters

AN OUTSTANDING
BIBLE EDUCATION

Acts 17:11 (NKJV)

11 These were more fair-minded than those in Thessalonica, in that they received the word with all readiness, and searched the Scriptures daily to find out whether these things were so.

PAUL'S EPISTLE TO THE TIMOTHY & TITUS

Writing the last letter of your life?

Who do you write to? What do you write about?

The odds are good your concerns are not church administrative structure and false teachers!

This is Paul's focus, however, in writing his last three letters. It is clear in the last letter he knows the end of his life is just around the corner. Even so, his focus is on false teachers and protecting the gospel.

The Course

False teachers? Church Government? Care for widows? How employees should act toward their boss?

Are these the topics you would write about in your last letters? Paul did. It is clear in the last letter he knows the end of his life is just around the corner. Even so, his focus is on false teachers and protecting the gospel.

Join us as we spend a year walking through these letters, attempting to understand why Paul chose these, and other topics, to write to his young assistants.

Join the Calvary Road Bible Institute this Fall for a year long look into the final letters of Paul – 1 & 2 Timothy and Titus. See how the Apostle envisions church organization, deals with false teachers, and considers the future of the church of Jesus Christ.

Class Details

We will meet on Thursday nights in Cottage A from 7:00 PM until about 8:30 PM. I encourage discussion so come with your questions and comments.

Our textbook is the Bible, and hopefully you will have access to a couple of versions. In addition, there are required readings. More information about the choice of commentaries will be available shortly.

The tuition cost is $100 per semester (so, $200 for the entire year).

Anyone may join us. There is no requirement to have completed any other Bible Institute class.
